Lesson 2

This scenario is about Sophia and Aiden. Sophia is Aiden's neighbour and friend. She is in Year 9 – so older than Aiden and goes to the same secondary school that Aiden has just joined. She has agreed to walk with Aiden but is a bit late and they have missed the bus.

Sophia: We might as well head back home.

Aiden: What do you mean? I have got to get to school.

Sophie: Yes, but the next bus is not for another 45 minutes and it's going to rain so we might as well wait at home.

Aiden: We can't do that – we have to wait here in case another bus comes, or maybe someone who can give us a lift.

Sophie: Don't worry – we have plenty of time. You won't be late for school trust me I've done this a thousand times before.

Aiden (angry & shouting): I told my mum I couldn't rely on you. I can't be late it's only my 3rd week. You are going to get me into trouble.

Sophie (upset): That's a mean thing to say. I said you won't be late. You can't wait here by yourself as I promised you mum I'd look after you. I wish I'd never said I would walk with you.

Scenario lesson 3

Lesson 3

This scenario is about Joseph and Zachary. They have been friends since they started primary school and are also in the same form in secondary. Recently Joseph had a falling out with Ruby and he isn't friends with her anymore. Zachary always waits for Joseph before going out to the playground at lunch. Today Zachary hasn't waited and Joseph sees him already playing with Ruby. Zachary sees him and waves.

Joseph (saying to himself): Omg I can't believe he is playing with her after she was unkind to me.

Zachary calls out: Hey Joseph, come on we are getting a team together for a kick around.

Joseph: Come here a minute

Zachary: Hey, what's up? You come to play?

Joseph: Ruby hates me, you know she was so unkind to me the other day. She won't want me to play.

Zachary: Oh! that's all forgotten. It was only a misunderstanding. Come on lets go.

Joseph: I can't believe you. I thought you were my friend. Am I just supposed to forget that she laughed at me and called me an idiot?

Zachary: Of course not. She actually wants to say sorry. She'd had a bad day and she knows she shouldn't have taken it out on you.

Joseph: What and you think I should just accept that. You have no idea how she made me feel and in front of everyone. She is just a nasty person. I am not playing with her ever again and I can't believe you want to either.

Zachary: Oh come on mate, give her a chance. It was a one off and I'm sure she won't be like that again. Besides she's joining our team so you will have to play with her in PE.

Joseph: I hate this school and everyone in it. I'm going to get lunch on my own.

Zachary: Don't be like that. I'm totally your friend, but you've got to lighten up a bit. I am not going to not be friends with Ruby because of that one thing. I know she wasn't nice, but she's not like most of the time. She just gets a bit grumpy and can say the wrong thing.

Joseph: Well I'm not playing with her and that's that See you later maybe.

English oral test results

Ali: How did you get on in the test?

Jake: I really messed up all my words. I was so bad, its embarrassing. I don't think I'll ever be able to speak in front of people.

Picking teams

James: Our team is useless. None of them will take it seriously and we will lose.

Josh: This is going to be so hard. I am rubbish at sport and I am going to let everyone down.

Party invitation

Brittany: She is so mean not to invite me. I never get invited to anything.

Nbushi: I don't think that Mia or Arlo have been invited. You are coming to my party aren't you?

Homework

Saannvi: I have so much homework to do it's ridiculous. I will never get it done even if I work all night.

Amelia: I know, they give us too much

Find the gremlin beliefs worksheet 2

School play

Lena: I've got the main part in the school play. I'm never going to remember my lines.

Logan: I never get picked because they think I'm too shy but I can't say anything because I will look silly.

Unfair

Honey: I am not allowed to walk to town on my own. Its so unfair. My parents treat me like a baby.

Moxie: I can't wait until I am grown up it's so boring being young.

Lost jumper

Willow: I can't find my school jumper. Mum is going to be so mad.

Hallie (Willow's sister): Ha ha! You are going to bed early, no games, no TV, no fun!

Home school

Lucy: It was brilliant in Covid and we didn't have to go to school or learn anything.

Finny: It's alright for you. I got so behind and I am never going to catch up now.

Lesson 5

Teacher to read: This scenario is about Kai wanting to join a racing club. His dad is not keen on the idea as he thinks it is dangerous.

Kai: Here are all the details about the club I've been telling you about. It's going to be so good especially now I have my bike all sorted.

Kai's dad: I haven't agreed you can join yet.

Kai: What do you mean?

Kai's dad: I am just not happy about it. It can be really dangerous. I don't want you to get hurt, what if something happens to you?

Kai: Why do you always get so stressed whenever I want to do something different? You always say I can't because you are worried about me. I am not a baby anymore? Do you really think that something bad will happen?

Kai's dad: Yes, you could get knocked off your bike, and break bones or even worse. You are still small and not as big as the other kids that will be there.

Kai: Ok, let's WoBbLe this for a minute.

Kai's dad: WoBbLe it?

Kai: Yeah WoBbLe, it is a skill for assessing situations. You need WoBbLe in your life, dad!

Calm ideas handout

COUNTING BREATHING

Sit on a chair with both feet flat on the floor, get comfortable but avoid slouching.

Close your eyes or find a point on the floor directly in front of you to focus on.

Count the number of breaths in 1 minute. One breath = one inhale and exhale. Don't try and slow the breathing down or speed it up, just put all your attention on the breath and to notice how many you take.

If you find your mind wandering away from your breath, that's normal - just gently bring the attention back to the breathing.

VISUALISE DEALING WITH STRONG EMOTIONS

Imagine stepping outside of your mind. Imagine climbing some stairs to a balcony above and looking down on your situation below. Seeing the situation from a distance.

Not trying to change anything but just seeing it from above, away from it, not directly involved. Think about the advice you would give to deal with this in the best way?

MENTAL GAMES

Count down from 100 in 3s – 100, 97, 94, 91, 88, 85...

List of the members of your favorite sports team...

Think of an animal for every letter in the alphabet – A for antelope, B for bear, C for cat...

CREATE AN IMAGINARY SAFE ESCAPE

Imagine a place that feels happy, safe and secure. It may be a real place or completely imaginary. Visualise what it looks like in detail, what can be seen, what does it smell like, what can be heard. Imagine and experience each of the senses of this place in turn, forming a vivid mental picture, but also allow yourself to be there in your mind.

3-7 BREATHING

Sit on a chair with both feet on flat on floor, get comfortable but avoid slouching.

Close your eyes (is better if possible) or find a point on the floor directly in front of you to focus on.

Breath in (1, 2, 3) and out (1, 2, 3).

After 2 or 3 times slow the breathing down further, this time to count of 4.

Breath in (1,2,3, 4) and out (1,2,3,4).

After a couple of times go even slower to breath out to a count of 5.

Breath in (1,2,3, 4) and out (1,2,3,4,5).

Then to a count of 6

Breath in (1,2,3, 4) and out (1,2,3,4,5,6).

And finally, to a count of 7.

Breath in (1,2,3, 4) and out (1,2,3,4,5, 6, 7).
